

I believe that the Consumer Protection Act should be granted! I do not want to be bother with people trying to sell me something unless I call them myself.